

Puerto Notes.

(Correspondence:)

We have noticed several small boys carrying 22 target rifles around lately, which is a rather dangerous thing for small boys to do as accidents are liable to happen at any time.

French, the hustling young land agent of Grady, was here last week.

A party of men were here last week figuring on an auto route through here from Tucumcari to T-xico. If the project comes to pass, they will in all probability make Puerto the half way point and will probably put in a garage here. They seemed to be favorably impressed with our town.

Messrs Wright and Lee, of Tucumcari were here last week in the interest of the Puerto Townsite Company. They say they will soon be ready to sell lots in Puerto.

Our mail was 20 hours late last Saturday on account of the snow.
